

This week your child was learning about: Eid

Literacy

Our book of the week was: Rameena's Ramadan a Twinkl Original.

In this week's story we follow the life of Rameena in the lead up to her Eid celebrations. We talked about how Muslims celebrate Eid at the end of Ramadan and the good deeds they set forth to do during the celebration.

Word on the Street:

This week our word is: Proud

This week the children discussed the word proud. Proud means being happy with something that you have done or yourself. The children told us what they are proud of.

Numeracy: Time

This week we introduced the topic of time. We were discussing the clock, it's face and hands and how it moves to show the seconds, minutes and hours. This week the children learned to tell time on the hour.

Phonics

This week we reviewed the sounds; ow and oi

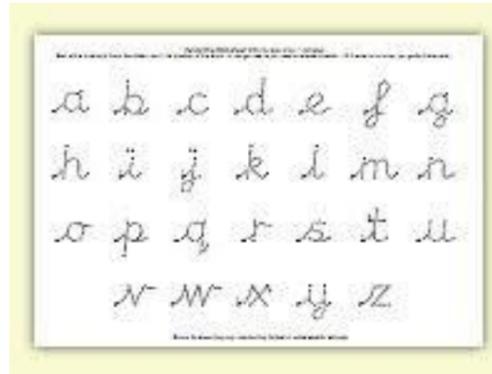

Topic: Eid

This week we discussed Eid and we wish all our children and families who celebrate Eid Mubarak.

How you can help your child at home:

Practice writing as much as you can. We are starting to teach the children the pre-cursive style, so encourage this at home. With the sounds of the week if you can ow, oi

Practice Time, have your child discuss what time it is with your family. Can they read the clock?

Things to remember:

- We now have a class pet! His name is Zackstorm and he is a (stuffed) Lemur. The children will take turns caring for him in your and must document the care in Zackstorm's book.
- We would like to ask all parents to start sending in hats and sun cream. With the warmer weather we are having the children are loving it outside but it is getting hot so we want them to be protected.
- Please send spare socks for your child. Our stream is up and running and while we have wellies for the children in the all excitement socks are still getting wet.
- Please continue to send in any recycling for our junk modelling table.
- PE is Thursday's.
- Books are changed on Thursday's.
- Last day of term is Friday the 24th of May.

Thank you for your ongoing support.
